Dear [REDACTED]

Further to our email of 28th March 2022 regarding your request for the following information:

I would be grateful if you can advise if the following document is the latest version to be reviewed/approved by the AWE. Should the following version be out of date I would be most grateful if AWE can provide details of the latest version.

Development Management Guidance for Proposed Development near AWE Sites. (West Berkshire Council, AWE001, 31 March 2019).

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

Thorough searches have been carried out to locate the information you requested and we can confirm that the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) does not hold any relevant information.

Under Section 16 of the FOI Act (advice and assistance) you might find it helpful to note that the document you have requested information about was written and published by West Berkshire Council, so you may wish to resubmit your request to them.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications. If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you are unhappy with the way your request has been handled you have a right to request an internal review within 40 days of receiving this letter, by writing to information.requests@awe.co.uk or our postal address: Information Requests Team, AWE Aldermaston, Reading, RG7 4PR. If you are still unhappy after an internal review has been completed, under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 you have the right to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. Please note the Commissioner will generally not consider a complaint until you have exhausted AWE's internal complaints process.

Yours sincerely,

AWE Information Requests Team
