Dear [REDACTED],

Further to our previous correspondence regarding your request for the following information:

 The release of all information held about a project, archive or document titled 'H.1195'*

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

A search has been carried out to locate the information in scope of your request and we can confirm that AWE has not been able to locate any relevant information regarding a project, archive or document titled 'H.1195'.

Under Section 16 of the FOI Act (advice and assistance) you might find it helpful to note that 'H.1195' is not a project, archive or document. 'H.1195' is a reference term and the only occurrence in which we have found is within a document entitled "Message from AWRE Christmas Island to AWRE Aldermaston: Reference Blood Count Irregularities." Please see the link below to the document available here:
