Dear [REDACTED],

Regarding your recent request for the following information:

For report AWRE 06/86, ISBN 9780855181727

Your request has been handled as a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the Act).

A search for the requested information within AWE has now been completed, and we can confirm that information in scope of your request is held.

We are able to provide a Pdf copy, attached. Although the document bears an ISBN number it is unfortunately out of print and unavailable. The British Library holds a microfiche copy but this is held in remote storage and currently unavailable due to renovation works at the library.

Given that access to the British Library's copy would require a visit to the Reading Rooms at St Pancras, London, we do not consider this to meet the Act's definition of "reasonably accessible." Therefore, we are providing the document directly in response to your request.

Please remember to quote the reference number above in any future communications. If you have any queries regarding the content of this letter, please contact this office in the first instance.

If you are unhappy with the way your request has been handled you have a right to request an internal review within 40 days of receiving this letter, by writing to information.requests@awe.co.uk or our postal address: Information Requests Team, AWE Aldermaston, Reading, RG7 4PR. If you are still unhappy after an internal review has been completed, under the provisions of Section 50 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000 you have the right to take your complaint to the Information Commissioner's Office. Please note the Commissioner will generally not consider a complaint until you have exhausted AWE's internal complaints process.

Yours sincerely,

AWE Information Requests Team
